Birmingham Children's Hospital Charity

Doing more for sick kids

The 29th May 1961 Charitable Trust

The trustees of The 29th May 1961 Charitable Trust have been supporters of us for many years. This year, they have made a generous contribution to help us bring our Roald Dahl stainedglass windows to life. We are all incredibly grateful.

Anglia Home Furnishings

In September last year, the team at Anglia Home Furnishings fundraised for our Craniofacial Department after our staff saved the life of the HR Relationship Manager's nephew when he was just two-years-old. They ran instore competitions, events and raffles and raised over £5,000. We think you're all stars, thank you!

Nick Anthony

Nick ran his third London Marathon for us in 2019 and once again went above and beyond to push his fundraising to reach over £7,000. This takes Nick's collective fundraising to an impressive £27,000. He reaches out to so many with his Sportsman's Dinner and his commitment inspires others to take on their own challenges. Thank you Nick for all you do for us and our hospital.

James and Kirsty Archer

James and Kirsty organised a fabulous masquerade ball in honour of their friends' daughter Grace, who was diagnosed with a brain tumour at just 10-months-old. To help support their friends, they decided to put on a glamorous ball where they raised thousands of pounds for us. Thank you so much for being such wonderful friends to Grace and her family, but also to our charity.

Avison Young

The incredible team at Avison Young raised an amazing £8,410 in just one day when they took on our Apprentice Challenge. As part of the company's 'Day of Giving', 48 enthusiastic volunteers opted to take part and test their teamwork, communication and creativity skills to raise vital funds for our sick kids. They are now our leaderboard winners for the challenge and we are so impressed with how well they did. Well done team Avison Young!

Birmingham Hippodrome Theatre

Birmingham Hippodrome Theatre and Qdos Entertainment Ltd have supported us and our hospital for many years by holding bucket collections at their annual pantomime shows. At the beginning of each year, they also sprinkle the magic of the stage around our hospital by organising for the stars of the show to visit our brave patients. You help to spread so much joy to our staff, patients and families and for that, we can't thank you all enough.

The Blue Coat School

The staff and pupils at The Blue Coat School have been supporters of ours for many years, helping to raise money for lots of our appeals including our Out To Play Appeal. They've thrown themselves into every challenge going, including a sponsored bounceathon! The pupils were able to visit our newly refurbished playground, which they helped make a reality, and were amazed at the impact they had had. You're all amazing supporters and truly deserve to be one of our 100 Heroes.

Steve Boaz

Steve, along with his family and friends, set up 'Captain Chaos Challenges' to raise money for our Oncology Department in memory of his son Jack. The first fundraiser was 'Paddling for Jack', which involved canoeing the length of the River Severn, starting at the source in the Welsh mountains to the mouth of the river at the Severn Estuary – over 220 miles in just seven days. Steve raised over £9,500. Simply incredible! We couldn't be more grateful for the lengths you went to, to raise money for us, Steve, you're a true hero of ours.

Brocton Hall Golf Club

The team at Brocton Hall Golf Club raised more than £4,000 for us last year through coffee mornings, bridge raffles, tea parties and plenty of golf competitions. We are extremely grateful to the team at Brocton Hall Golf Club and everybody who joined them for their continued support. Your commitment to fundraising is outstanding and so appreciated.

Sarah Burgess

Sarah raised over £6,000 in 2019 by organising a Christmas-themed charity fun day. Her daughter, Indhi Rose, had to spend her first Christmas at our hospital, so Sarah wanted to make sure it was magical. She organised everything from a bouncy castle to face painting and even managed to secure a special appearance from Elsa and Olaf, as well as Santa and his helpers. It was a very special day that made Christmas incredibly special for a lot of our patients and their families. You're truly amazing, Sarah, thank you for everything you have done.

Cameron Homes

What a great year for Cameron Homes; the intrepid team took on a Snowdon trek and raised over £7,000 for us. They have also supported our ward decorations project for the past few years, helping to bring the magic of Christmas to the wards and departments across our hospital. Thank you so much for your dedication to do more for our sick kids.

The Children's Research Fund

Thanks to an incredibly generous grant from The Children's Research Fund, Professor Andrew Peet, an Honorary Consultant at our hospital, can continue to lead the way on researching pioneering ways to treat children with brain tumours, leading to earlier diagnoses and kinder treatments. We are delighted to recognise your generosity as one of our very deserving 100 Heroes – thank you.

Kerry Clinton

Kerry has hosted a number of spooktacular Halloween fundraisers to raise money for our Paediatric Intensive Care Unit to say thank you for looking after her daughter, Tiffany Rose, who underwent nine hours of open-heart surgery at our hospital. Kerry has raised over £11,000 to date and she has also donated Easter eggs, arts and crafts materials and gifts at Christmastime with the support of her fabulous friends. Thank you Kerry, for absolutely everything you do, you're a real star.

The Cotton Trust

We are incredibly grateful to The Cotton Trust for their generous support which helped us bring our Roald Dahl stained-glass windows to life. Your gift has helped to brighten the visits of each and every one of our patients and their families, and for that we are eternally thankful.

Fiona Cunningham

Fiona, along with Siobhan, Kevin and Paul, took on the Three Peaks Challenge last September to support the Respiratory and Cystic Fibrosis Unit at our hospital in the name of Christy Cunningham. Tackling the Three Peaks in 24 hours is a huge achievement and we are incredibly grateful for your excellent support – well done!

Daisychain Private Day Nursery

Thank you so much to everyone at the Daisychain Private Day Nursery for hosting a ball and netball match to fundraise for us in memory of Isabelle Rose. These wonderful supporters raised money for our Liver Unit to enable the team to continue its expert care for our young patients. We really appreciate your kind and brilliant support.

Gemma Davies and Family

The Davies family chose to raise money for us in memory of their much-loved Jessica. The family, along with members of the community, have organised a variety of different fundraisers including a music evening, bucket collections, raffles and they are also planning a long distance horse ride from their home in Leominster, Herefordshire to our hospital. Thank you for your continued support in memory of Jessica. We can't thank you enough for everything you have done and continue to do.

Jacques Du Plessis

Jacques decided to take on the Shrewsbury Half Marathon and Great Birmingham Run for his son Luan, who was receiving care at our hospital for the rare condition MEGF10/EMARDD. Heartbreakingly, in the days between the two half marathons, Luan passed away. However Jacques was determined to continue his fundraising, going on to raise over £5,000 in memory of his son and subsequently secured a place in this year's London Marathon. Thank you Jacques, for your incredible, on-going support in memory of Luan.

Neil and Fiona Edwards

The Edwards family are into their tenth year of fundraising for our Renal Department in memory of their daughter, Emilia. Over the past decade, they have taken on running challenges, organised a Christmas tree recycling scheme and hosted an annual, much-loved Hog Roast event, which has helped them raise over £50,000 for us. The money has gone on to purchase much-needed equipment at our hospital. We can't thank you enough, Neil and Fiona, for supporting the vital work of our colleagues.

Ettingshall Poultry

A huge thank you to the team at Ettingshall Poultry who have chosen to support us for the past two years. Your generosity and commitment over this time is hugely appreciated and truly means the world to us all.

The Eveson Charitable Trust

Our friends at The Eveson Charitable Trust have supported us and the work of our hospital for many years. Their most recent donation helped us to refurbish the soundproof hearing test rooms in our Audiology Department, ensuring our children are treated in a bright, welcoming and friendly environment. We would like to thank the trustees for their wonderful, continued support, we are all so grateful.

Carl Falconer

Carl has continually supported us by raising money at his sporting dinner event, which has now raised over £9,250. Carl was inspired to fundraise for us after the support and care his friend Neil Taylor's daughter, Kiahna, received at our hospital. Thank you so much Carl, you put so much into this event each year and it has really paid off!

Jen Farmer and Team Devon

Whether it be walking, cycling or running, Jen has been truly unstoppable in her bid to raise money for us. Throughout 2019, Jen and Team Devon raised over £6,500 for our Cardiac Unit to thank the team for caring for her brother Devon, who underwent a life-saving heart operation at just one-week-old. You're all absolutely amazing and we cannot thank you all enough for your excellent support.

FedEx Express UK

After visiting our hospital for a tour last year, the team at FedEx were inspired to get their own red balloon and we are thrilled that their hard work and dedication has paid off. The team raised over a fantastic £6,170 last year by taking on a range of challenges and activities. We are so grateful for your determination to do more for our sick kids, thank you all so much!

Mohammed Fessal and Family

To say thank you to our Paediatric Intensive Care Unit and Cardiology teams, Mohammed, along with his friends and family, set their sights to climb Scafell Pike in memory of his son, Adam. Not only did they defeat the tallest mountain in England, but they also raised a huge £9,500 in the process. Thank you all for showcasing such courage and achieving everything you have, you're all true heroes in our eyes.

Sir William Francis

Sir William Francis has been supporting us with generous and kind donations for more than 16 years. We had the pleasure of learning all about his involvement with the Ministry of Health and how he played a huge part in bringing our hospital back to its original Steelhouse Lane site from its previous location at Five Ways in 1998. Thank you, Sir William, for everything you have done for our hospital, we will be forever grateful.

Staffordshire Knot Lodge 726

Members of the Staffordshire Knot Lodge 726 showed tremendous spirit in supporting one of their friends, Mike, whose son, Daniel, has been under the care of our Urology Department since he was born. They organised a number of quiz nights and pantomimes to raise over £4,800 to support the department. Thank you to each and every one of you for your brilliant and much-appreciated support.

Gallagher

The amazing team from Gallagher at Brierley Hill raised over £6,000 for Ward 9 to show their support for their colleague, Nick Sharman, whose son spent time there following a Wilms' Tumour diagnosis. They have organised a number of events and even decided to tackle Mount Snowdon. Thank you all for going to such great heights for our patients.

The G J W Turner Trust

We would like to thank The G J W Turner Trust for their ongoing support. A generous grant from them last year has helped our research team continue with their cutting-edge projects. We are delighted to welcome you to our 100 Heroes family.

GGR Communications Ltd

In 2018, GGR Communications Ltd chose to support our charity in light of the close personal connection many of their employees had to our hospital, including their Director, Adrian, whose daughter was treated here. They spent last year throwing themselves into a variety of fundraising and volunteering opportunities, including our ward decorations project, Jolly Jumper Day and the Big Spring Raffle, as well as donating money to us for every Christmas card they sent out. In total, they raised over £3,580. What a fantastic amount – we are so grateful.

Give a Child Health

The Sunday Mercury's Give a Child Health Trust is a long-term supporter of ours. A grant made on behalf of the Trust last year has funded a special cubical on our Respiratory Ward that enables us to monitor and assess children while they are asleep. The trustees have also helped us to purchase a range of toys and games for the unit. Your continued support is so important to us, thank you.

Peter Gladwell

Peter has supported us since 2014 with an incredibly generous monthly donation. Over this time, he has donated a total of £3,300 to help us do more for the sick kids in our hospital's care. These regular donations help to make all the difference, Peter. Your contributions are appreciated by all of us.

The Glee Club

The Glee Club Birmingham has raised over £30,000 since they began supporting us back in 2017. They have achieved this incredible amount through online booking donations and bucket collections at the end of their shows. We are so incredibly grateful for your brilliant support, we can't thank you enough.

Gorsemoor Primary School

An army of 600 staff and pupils from Gorsemoor Primary School collectively travelled the distance of a return trip from their school in Cannock to our hospital – a mammoth 42 miles. Showing true school spirit, they skipped, hopped and danced the distance raising a staggering £5,800 along the way. The school wanted to raise money for us in aid of two of their pupils who are currently being treated at our hospital. We think you're all simply wonderful, thank you so much!

Ann Grant

The amazing Ann raised £5,000 for us at her charity fundraising night, which was held in aid of our Cardiac Unit. Not only did she raise this fantastic amount of money, but she also helped raise awareness about our brilliant hospital. The money has helped to purchase medical equipment, toys and games for our patients on the unit's wards. Thank you so much, Ann, you truly deserve to be one of our 100 Heroes.

Poppy Guilder and Team Poppy Fields

The Guilders, along with their family, friends and the wider community, have supported us since their daughter, Poppy, was diagnosed with a brain tumour over 16 years ago. Since 2004, they have raised close to a phenomenal £300,000. The impact they have made has been utterly amazing; they have contributed to much-needed neurosurgical equipment, as well as research into childhood brain tumours currently being investigated at our hospital. The support, dedication and friendships we have built over this time have been wonderful and we cannot thank you all enough for the remarkable work you do.

H W Taroni Metals

Four best friends, along with four 'old banger' cars, took on a Top Gearstyle challenge to drive 1,250 miles from Birmingham to Rome with the intention of raising £1 for every mile they travelled. By the time they had finished, the quartet had far surpassed their initial fundraising target, raising over £5,800. Thank you all so much for steering your fundraising down such a fantastic path, we are so grateful for your brilliant achievement.

Halifax, Lloyds Banking Group

The team at Halifax, Lloyds Banking Group were on the hunt for a teambuilding exercise with a difference and decided to take on our Apprentice Challenge. In just one day they managed to raise over £3,900 for us. You all absolutely smashed the challenge and we're so pleased to recognise you as one of our 100 Heroes. You're all amazing!

The Hearts of England Association

As a supporter of our charity for many years, The Hearts of England Association has made substantial contributions to various projects throughout our hospital. These generous donations have helped to refurbish theatres and treatment rooms, as well as fund specialist equipment including cardiac probes and an Evo Heart monitor. We are incredibly appreciative and grateful for your kind and on-going support.

Emma Hill and the Magic of Milly

Along with her family and friends. Emma continues to raise an inspiring amount of money each year in memory of her daughter, Milly, who was a muchloved patient at our hospital for two vears of her life. Since their fundraising journey started, Emma, along with her fundraising group, The Magic of Milly, have raised over an incredible £135,000. We are also extremely proud that Emma was shortlisted as the 'Volunteer Fundraiser of the Year' at the Institute of Fundraising Awards last year, a true testament to all of her hard work and dedication over the past six years. We can never thank you all enough.

Hitman Promotions

Sunny and Kam of Hitman Promotions have been running their White Collar Boxing Championship to raise money for us for many years and, alongside other fundraising activities, have raised over £60,000 to date. Sunny, Kam and all those at Hitman Promotions have always gone above and beyond to raise funds for our sick kids. Thank you all for always being our knockout champions!

The Hobson Charity Ltd

We would like to thank the trustees of The Hobson Charity Ltd for their generous donation which enabled us to purchase a portable Echocardiography machine for our Cardiac Unit. Your kind support will help us better the experience of our patients and their families for years to come and for that, we are so grateful.

HROC

The team from HROC set an epic challenge to raise £40,000 for charities throughout 2019 to mark their 40th anniversary. From swimming 40 miles in 40 days to scaling the heights of Fort Dunlop at our abseil and running half marathons, the team threw themselves into getting active for our sick kids. Your dedication to fundraising is truly admirable and we can't thank you enough for your amazing support.

Nick Hughes

Nick has raised over £4,500 in loving memory of his brother Marc, whose son Mason received treatment and care at our hospital after being born with a cleft lip. Nick, along with his friends, took on a variety of fundraising activities to raise money for our Cleft Lip and Palate Department. Thank you, Nick, for your brilliant support, you are so deserving of your place as one of our 100 Heroes.

Winifred and Ralph Hutchinson

An incredibly generous donation from our dear friend Winifred enabled us to purchase a state-of-the-art ANT Visor 2 System for our Neurophysiology Department. This high-tech system helps our neuroscientists to localise critical areas of a patient's brain in a safe and completely none-invasive way. Thanks to Winifred's gift, we are one of the first NHS Trusts in the UK to have this ground-breaking piece of equipment which has, and will continue to, transform the way in which we are able to perform brain surgery. We simply cannot thank you enough, Win, for your truly wonderful support that will help so many.

Christopher and Anne Hyde

Christopher and Anne have been supporting us with a regular gift for over 12 years. Since 2006, they have donated over £3,300 to support our sick kids. Their fantastic contribution demonstrates the value of our loyal supporters and the real impact they have on our hospital and patients. Thank you both so much for your continued generosity.

Keith Jecks

Keith was appointed as one of our trustees in January 2015 and chairs our Investment Advisory Committee. On top of the wonderful work he does for us and our hospital, he also contributes to our work with generous and kind donations. We are so grateful to you, Keith, for everything you do for us.

JLT Specialty Limited (Trading)

JLT Specialty Limited (Trading) started fundraising for us back in 2015 and the team have been incredible supporters ever since. Last year, they went the extra mile with their efforts, raising an outstanding £9,020. Spearheaded by their very own charity champion Pauline, the team have taken on a number of fundraising activities including our ward decorations project, bucket collections and a 'survival of the fittest' challenge. A huge thank you to you all for your incredible support, we can't thank you all enough.

Johnnie Johnson Trust

We are incredibly grateful to the trustees of the Johnnie Johnson Trust for their continued support for our Transplant Games team, which last year was crowned 'Best Children's Team' at the annual event for the 22nd year running. Without these contributions, the team, which is comprised of children and young people who have undergone transplant surgery, simply would not be able to take part in the games. Thank you so much for recognising the importance of this very valuable and enriching experience, your generous contributions are appreciated by so many.

Louis Johnson

Thirteen-year-old Louis Johnson's life-long passion and dedication to fundraising for us, along with his genuine love of our hospital, is second to none. Beginning his fundraising when he was just two-years-old, nothing has ever been too much for Louis, which is evident in his 'can do' and 'go getting' attitude. Over the past 11 years, Louis has raised over £25,000 for charities close to his heart, including our own. We are so humbled by your amazing support, Louis.

Mrs Kennedy

Mrs Kennedy donated an incredibly generous gift of £5,000 to us after her beloved late husband, Ronald, requested to thank all of those who had helped them in their lives. We are so grateful for such a wonderful legacy from you both which will go far in helping us do more for the brave patients in our hospital's care. Thank you.

Pervinderjit Khela

Pervinderjit and Reena have been raising funds for us for over eight years to thank our hospital for the on-going treatment of their daughter, Amara. Reena, along with her brother, have organised a hugely successful 'supercar' fundraising day to help support a number of departments at our hospital, while Pervinderjit's friends at Respect Fitness hosted a charity boxing night. We are delighted to recognise you as one of our 100 Heroes, your continued support and fantastic fundraisers are enjoyed by so many. We can't thank you enough.

Kids Like Us

Kids Like Us was born after a group of staff members from our hospital wanted to organise events that gave children and young people living with juvenile arthritis independence breaks. It quickly gained support from parents and young people and wasn't long before it became its own charity. Over the past 25 years, they have offered such brilliant opportunities to our patients and their families, and we are truly delighted to be able to work so closely with them. Thank you all so much for your invaluable support.

Lisa Kitchen

After her daughter underwent an operation at our hospital in 2018, Lisa was inspired to fundraise for us to thank the Craniofacial team. Lisa took it upon herself to organise a vintage tractor run, along with a raffle, to raise money for us last summer. Your incredibly unique and exciting fundraising day was enjoyed by so many and the money you raised from it will go on to help our brave patients and their families. Thank you.

LDC

LDC's fundraising quiz has become an event many – including our own team - look forward to each year since it began in 2007. The commitment and dedication the team have shown to us over the past 13 years has been truly remarkable and the money they have raised has helped make such a difference to our hospital. We are incredibly grateful to each and every one of you for your loyalty and unparalleled support. Thank you all so much.

The Linley Family

The Linley family have supported us for over 11 years following the lifesaving care that their daughter, Sophie, received at our hospital when she was a baby. Through regular, generous gifts, the family have so far donated over £3,300. It's thanks to you that we can continue to provide the very best support to our patients and their families. We couldn't be more grateful.

Little Angels

Paul organised a number of fundraising events for our Neurosurgery Ward in memory of Lennon Talbot, including a charity football match, a cabaret night and a sponsored walk. We cannot thank you enough for your incredible support, Paul. Your amazing fundraising has helped provide facilities in our parents' rooms, arts and crafts for our patients to enjoy while spending time at our hospital and vital equipment, all in Lennon's name. You truly deserve to be named as one of our 100 Heroes.

LM JV

The wonderful team from LM JV began supporting us back in 2018. Since then, they've undertaken a whole range of fundraising activities, including the Birmingham Half Marathon, multiple bake sales and raffles and participating in our Jolly Jumper Day, raising over an amazing £4,070. With plans to tackle even more challenges for us this year, we're so lucky to have you all on board. Thank you, to each and every one of you.

The Loppylugs and Barbara Morrison Charitable Trust

A wonderful gift from our long-standing supporters, The Loppylugs and Barbara Morrison Charitable Trust, has gone towards supporting our Arts Fund to help to bring a wide range of visual and performing arts into our hospital. Arts in the hospital are known to have a hugely beneficial impact on our patients' well-being and recovery time, meaning this special gift will go a long way in supporting our sick kids. Thank you, it means so very much.

The M K Rose Charitable Trust

We are incredibly grateful to Sharon and all of the trustees at The M K Rose Charitable Trust for their support of our Arts Fund. Their generous gift will help us bring a variety of different arts to our hospital to help us provide a friendlier and more welcoming environment to our patients, as well as improve their mental well-being. Thank you, to all of you, for your incredibly kind and loyal support.

Malkins Bank Golf Club

Club captains of the Malkins Bank Golf Club, Beverly and Mike, wanted to help us do more for our sick kids by choosing to support us for their season last year. In total, they raised over a teerrific £6,000. We're so grateful to you, Beverly and Mike, as well as everyone at the Malkins Bank Golf Club.

Kate Mawson

Seren's All Stars have been raising money for us since Kate's daughter, Seren, was diagnosed with acute Lymphoblastic Leukaemia just after her ninth birthday. The past year has been difficult for the family, but Seren's positive attitude has helped to keep them all going on their quest to do more for the team who have cared for her. You're all such an inspiration, we can't thank you enough for everything you have done for us.

Bob Meadows

Over the last 15 years, Bob has raised money for a number of Neonatal Wards and last year, he committed his fundraising to our hospital's Neonatal Surgical Ward. Taking on the notorious L'Etape du Tour, a 135km cycle with a 14,970ft climb, Bob managed to raise an incredible £7,920. Not only did you accomplish a fantastic personal achievement, but you have also raised such an amazing amount of money which will go far in helping our sick kids. Thank you, Bob.

Matthew Meredith-Storer

In loving memory of his sons, Woody and Winter, Matthew set up The Woody and Winter Foundation in order to provide support to families going through incredibly hard times. The Foundation provides families with comforting items, including soft toys, and experiences to help them make memories away from the bedside. They have also fundraised for us to help the patients and families in our hospital's care. Thank you for your courage and strength, Matthew, your Foundation is a beautiful legacy to your sons and we are so grateful for your kind support.

Honourable Heroes

Young Fundraiser of the Year

Alfie Orton

Eight-year-old Alfie Orton has been a patient of ours since 2017 after he was diagnosed with a brain tumour. To thank those who cared for him, he began fundraising for us, and last year organised a charity football match at which he plucked up the courage to do a speech before kick-off. Over the past three years, Alfie and his family have managed to raise a staggering £10,000 for us and, even while recovering from his latest neurosurgery, Alfie has been planning his next fundraiser. Thank you so much Alfie for you truly astounding support.

Nate Pakeman

Nine-year-old Nate Pakeman decided to fundraise for us after his late-friend Tobi was treated at our hospital. Taking on 12 mega fundraisers over the course of 12 months, Nate climbed Mount Snowdon, took on a Bear Grylls-style challenge and even a 24-hour silence, to name a few. He has also been a vocal ambassador for us amongst his friends, family and local community, and has even had his endeavours covered in his local media. In total, Nate raised over an incredible £9,000 for us in memory of Tobi. Nate, we are in awe of your resilience and determination, despite suffering such a great loss. Thank you.

Samuel Stables-Mooney

Six-year-old Samuel has been under the care of our hospital since birth, as he was born with half a heart. Despite undergoing three open-heart surgeries, Samuel signed up to the Great Birmingham Junior and Mini Run last year, raising a fantastic £700 for our Paediatric Intensive Care Unit. For someone who struggles with simple, everyday tasks, just taking part in the race was a huge achievement for Samuel, and one we are incredibly proud of and thankful for. You're a true inspiration Samuel, thank you.

Amber Smalley

Seven-year-old Amber was born with several heart defects, including a hole in her heart, and has been a patient on our Cardiac Unit ever since. Over the past year, Amber has helped her mum, Katie, raise over an incredible £1,200 for us by organising a Summer Fayre, hosting live music nights with raffles and most recently a virtual sing-a-long dressed as Elsa. Nothing is ever too much for Amber and her passion to help others, along with her positive attitude, has always shone through. Thank you so much Amber, keep up the brilliant work and we look forward to seeing what you do next!

Corporate Supporter of the Year

Skatehut

Proud supporters of ours for over four years, the team from Skatehut have really thrown themselves into fundraising right from the get go. They have been known to swing in a hammock for 'Do Nothing to Give Something Day', host comedy and music nights, run marathons, brave sponsored shaves, take part in our Jolly Jumper Day, sponsor a bear for the Big Sleuth and even host an epic 'Wheel of Fortune' at their shop. We are so proud of our association with Skatehut and are tremendously grateful to them for raising over £30,000 for our sick kids. You are all utterly amazing, thank you.

Volunteer of the Year

Morrisons West Midlands

The teams from Morrisons stores across the West Midlands are fantastic supporters of our Paediatric Intensive Care Unit. Last year, they took on a mammoth 27-store relay to raise an amazing £17,000 for the ward. The Edgbaston store also donates fresh fruit to our Outpatients Department once a month and every Friday, a member of the team helps to volunteer on the Intensive Care Unit, spending time with families and lending a supportive ear whenever it's needed, something that is hugely appreciated by our staff and families. Thank you all so much for your incredible support, we are all so grateful.

Danual Perager and Alan Partridge

For the past eight years, firemen Dan and Alan have been huge supporters and invaluable ambassadors of ours. Not only have they represented us at a range of different events and ceremonies, talking about our impact, they have also been active fundraisers, organising a hugely successful annual charity ball. Over the years, the duo has raised over an incredible £29,600 for us. For the past few years, they have also built and hosted Santa's Grotto at the front of our hospital for our patients and families to enjoy. Dan and Alan, you're a huge part of our fundraising family and we're so grateful for everything you have done, and continue to do for us. Thank you so much.

Remarkable Partnership

The Entertainer and Pennies Foundation

The Entertainer, along with the Pennies Foundation, has supported us for over eight years. Stores from across the region give all customers the option to donate to us at the till. Last year, they celebrated an incredible milestone, after raising £500,000 for us through the scheme. This invaluable partnership has enabled us to do so much more for our brave patients and their families, as well as raising awareness of us across the West Midlands. A massive, heartfelt thank you to everyone at The Entertainer and Pennies Foundation for your loyalty and amazing support.

Superstar Award

Sam Coley

Sam is one of our true superstar supporters. After her 11-month-old daughter, Lexi, was born with a hole in her heart, she came to our hospital to receive specialist care and treatment, undergoing open-heart surgery when she was just three-months-old. Since then, Sam has gone above and beyond to say thank you. She has organised and hosted tea parties, sold raffle tickets and even let Lexi be the model for the front page of our Christmas catalogue! So far, Sam and her family have raised over an amazing £1,600 and continue to do all they can to show their gratitude to the staff in our Cardiac Unit. We are so grateful for your support, Sam, you're a real hero of ours.

Bradley Simpson

Local lad and lead singer of The Vamps, Bradley came up with a simple gesture of donating his baby grand piano to our hospital, which soon snowballed into an unforgettable experience for our staff, patients and families, when his bandmates joined him to play a surprise gig in the courtyard of our Waterfall House building. Along with his mother, Anne-Marie, Bradley has helped to create a wonderful legacy at our hospital. Thank you so much for everything you have done for us, Bradley, you have helped us all create some truly magical memories.

The Sikh Channel

The team from The Sikh Channel have really helped to spread the message of our hospital's important work to thousands of viewers worldwide. Not only has the channel invited us to chat about our work live on air, but they also chose to support us as part of their Saka Sirhind festivities. They filmed a special feature at our hospital to encourage their viewers to donate to us, and that they did, raising nearly £3,500. The team has committed to keep the partnership going and has also pledged to support our sister charity, Birmingham Women's Hospital Charity. A huge thank you to everyone at The Sikh Channel for helping us spread our message far and wide. We are so grateful for your support.

Corporate Charity Champion of the Year ____

Sarah Allchurch

Sarah has been a regular visitor to our hospital after her daughter was born with spina bifida. Knowing first-hand the excellent care her daughter receives, Sarah wanted to help raise money for us and awareness of the amazing work our hospital does. She was pivotal in gathering support for the nomination of us becoming her workplace, SDL Property Management's, charity of the year in 2019. Since the partnership launched, Sarah has thrown herself into organising events and getting the whole team involved in fundraising. From raising over £5,000 in our Apprentice Challenge to taking on wolf runs and half marathons, they have continuously challenged themselves to do more for our sick kids. Sarah has also since become an ambassador for our charity, helping to spread our message even further. You're an inspiration, Sarah, and truly deserve to be named our Corporate Charity Champion. Thank you for all your support.

Outstanding Contribution Award

Lucy Chatting

Lucy began fundraising for us four year ago after her son, Carter, was diagnosed with Leukaemia. After setting up the fundraising group, Carter the Brave, Lucy has been unstoppable. She has organised numerous events, including an annual ball, races, concerts, sports days and cake sales, to name but a few. Over the years, others have been inspired by Lucy and Carter the Brave and have joined in her fundraising efforts in Carter's name. The phenomenal amount of money Team Carter the Brave has raised for us has made a huge impact to the staff, patients and families in our Oncology Department. Lucy, your dedication to changing the lives of our patients and families is nothing short of astounding and we are so grateful for everything you have done, and continue, to do. Thank you.

Neil Taylor

Twelve years ago, Neil's daughter, Kiahna, received life-saving heart surgery at our hospital and ever since, Neil has been on a mission to help us do more for the sick kids in our hospital's care. Over the past 11 years, Neil has raised an incredible £138,000 by taking on a number of challenges, including marathons in London, Paris and New York, cycles from London to Paris and John O'Groats to Lands' End, and even scaling Mount Everest and Mount Kilimanjaro. If that wasn't enough adrenaline, Neil has also signed up to take on an epic trek across the Andes, too. Neil, your fundraising is truly admirable and your support for our hospital is second to none. We are so incredibly grateful.

The Nagra Family

Ambe, Rob, Nirvair and Asees Nagra have been devoted supporters of ours for over 10 years, raising money for us in memory of their beloved son and brother, Shaan. During this time, there isn't much the Nagras haven't done; from taking part in our annual abseil, to signing up to the Great Birmingham Junior and Mini Run and attending our Winter Balls with a number of guests, they have always been there to support us and offer a helping hand wherever they can. Their selfless fundraising has seen them raise over £48.000 to date. There is really no limit to your generosity and we are so thankful for all of your support.

Jordan King

British racing car driver, Jordan King, was a patient at our hospital after he was diagnosed with a Wilms' Tumour at just 11-months-old. Now 26, Jordan and his family have been avid supporters of ours, raising thousands of pounds over the past 25 years by taking on triathlons and regularly attending our Winter Ball. Last year, Jordan wanted to do something extra special for us by taking on the mammoth North Coast 500 cycle challenge which saw him cycling 65 miles a day for five days through the Scottish Highlands, raising close to an amazing £10,000. He has also used his profile as a Formula 2 driver to help spread awareness of our hospital. Thank you so much, Jordan, for continuously going above and beyond to show your support. We're so grateful.

Mitchells & Butlers

Between 2016 and 2019, we were lucky enough to be supported by the amazing team at Mitchells & Butlers who raised over £40,000 for us. The team took on many different activities during this time, from abseils to office dress-down days, and truly went above and beyond for our sick kids. Thank you for this phenomenal amount, we have absolutely loved working with you!

Mondelez UK

We are extremely grateful to the team at Mondelez UK for their support, which has seen them take on a variety of brilliant fundraisers over the past few years. We were also extremely privileged to receive a generous gift of £5,000 towards our Play and Recreation Workers and Facilitators. A huge thank you, you have helped us make a real difference to so many of our patients and their families.

Moor Hall Golf Club

Mark Jones and Cam Clarke, along with their incredible team, delivered their tenth annual golf day in support of our young patients. This fantastic day is one of enjoyment and celebration, and their support and commitment to our hospital over the years has raised an enormous £82,000. Your generosity and loyalty to us is truly admirable, we are so grateful.

Andrew Moore

Andrew has been a long-standing supporter of ours and over the past decade has donated every single month to help us do more for our sick kids. We are so grateful to you, Andrew, for continuing to donate to better the care, treatment and experience of our brave patients and their families.

Mougli Street Food

Since 2017, Mowgli Street Food
Birmingham has supported us as the beneficiary of an optional £1 donation added to each restaurant bill. Last year, the team also donated their time by volunteering at our Christmas Concert and the restaurant's manager, Mihai, even took part in our Birmingham to Amsterdam cycling challenge. Their amazing fundraising has reached nearly £40,000 for our Oncology Department.
We cannot thank you all enough for your incredible dedication to do more for our sick kids, you're all amazing.

Gurdeep Nagra and Family

Gurdeep and his family began fundraising for us in memory of his son, Jai. Collectively, they have raised over £22,000, which has gone on to purchase 12 'Rockin-R' game stations, giving our bed-bound patients the opportunity to play and enjoy games whilst at our hospital. Thank you to the whole family for your wonderful support, the game stations will bring so much enjoyment and happiness to so many of our patients.

Raushan Nandra

At just seven-years-old, Raushan bravely took on our abseil last year to raise money for us in honour of his friend who underwent chemotherapy at our hospital. He managed to raise an incredible £4,836, making him one of the event's top fundraisers. Raushan, you are a true inspiration and an incredible friend. Thank you so much for your brilliant support!

Newport Knights Roller Hockey Club

The Newport Knights Roller Hockey Club started fundraising for us a few years ago after their team mate, #25 Jamie Payne, decided he wanted to help us do more for our sick kids. Jamie sadly passed away in 2017, but the team have continued to support us in his memory. They take every opportunity they can to fundraise for us and have managed to break some World Records while at it. Thank you for your unwavering support in memory of Jamie, we are so grateful to have you all on board.

NFU Mutual Group IT

NFU Mutual Group IT raised an amazing £7,510 for our charity last year by hosting a whole variety of fun and creative fundraisers, including a second-hand phone sale, charity dog walks, treasure hunts.

a sponsored silence and a talent show. Amidst all of that, they also took on the Three Peaks Challenge. A huge thank you, you are all superstars!

NHBC

For the last two years we have been lucky enough to have had support from the annual NHBC golf day at the beautiful Henley-in-Arden golf course. In 2019, players raised over £3,000 in support of our young patients. Thank you for always going above and beyond for our sick kids.

Jamie and Helen Norgrove

Jamie and Helen wanted to show their support for Carter the Brave by raising money for our Oncology Department. Last year, they organised a brilliant night of live music and took part in a number of runs, including an 'ultramarathon', covering a staggering distance of 31.2 miles. No mean feat, having only started to run at the beginning of last year. Not only have you accomplished such an astonishing personal achievement, you have also helped raise such an amazing amount of money at the same time. We are so incredibly grateful to you both, thank you.

Old Swinford Hospital School

The staff and pupils of Old Swinford Hospital School in Bromsgrove decided to support us in memory of their beloved student and friend, Tom Mole, who passed away in 2018. They took on a variety of fundraisers including cake sales, an auction and sponsored runs to help raise money for our Paediatric Intensive Care Unit. What a lovely gesture and legacy for Tom. Thank you to the whole school.

Olton Primary School

Staff and pupils from Olton Primary School were inspired to host their first ever charity week to help raise money for us last year. They went above and beyond to organise a jam-packed week, full of stall sales, sponsored walks and a bean bag throw. The commitment and enthusiasm from the school was truly admirable and they managed to raise a phenomenal amount of money. We cannot thank you all enough for your brilliant support and we hope you had a great time at your first charity week!

Steve Plant

Long-term fundraiser and number one Wolves fan, Steve, launched the second edition of his book 'They Wore The Shirt' which has proven to be as popular as the first. A donation from each sale goes straight to helping us do more for our sick kids. Steve also organised a fundraising evening with ex-player, Steve Bull, which raised awareness and a fantastic amount of money for us.

We really can't thank you enough for all your hard work over the years, Steve, your
appreciated by so many.

Annette Pringle and Kate Newey

Annette and Kate lost their wonderful son and brother, Andrew, last year at just 45-years-old. Following his wishes, a collection was held at Andrew's funeral for our Neonatal Surgical Ward and, along with a generous gift left to us by him too, a donation of £4,500 was made to us in his name. The money went onto buy a piece of equipment for the ward in his memory. It was a real honour to invite you both to see the impact Andrew's legacy has made, we are so grateful for this special gift.

Prometheus Safe and Secure

We were really fortunate to have the amazing support of Prometheus Safe and Secure at our 2019 Winter Ball for the second consecutive year. The sponsorship allowed us to put on a truly fantastic evening that was enjoyed by so many. The team also made a gift to help us purchase outdoor gym equipment for our Parkview Clinic, something that will go far in helping the wellbeing of our patients. We cannot that you all enough for you invaluable and loyal support.

Prosperity Wealth Ltd

Only starting their fundraising for us in November 2019, the team at Prosperity Wealth raised an astounding £5,340. The team wanted to fundraise for us due to the Chief Executive, Matt Bell's, personal connection to the hospital and by attending both our Winter Ball and Christmas Concert, the team managed to raise this phenomenal amount. It's a real honour to work with such a philanthropic organisation, we are so grateful for your brilliant support.

Provincial Grand Lodge of Warwickshire

Over the past five years, members of the Provincial Grand Lodge of Warwickshire have raised almost £70,000, an enormous amount which has contributed to various projects including making improvements to our Complex Care Ward and support with education across our hospital. Thank you for your loyalty and generous support, the changes you have helped us make are appreciated by so many.

Raise For Life

Raise for Life held their annual cricket tournament, The Birmingham Champions Trophy, in aid of our charity, where they rasied over £7,500 for us. The team have been a real pleasure to work with, and we are so grateful to you all, along with everyone who attended your event, for the truly amazing support. We can't thank you all enough.

Prometheus Safe and Secure with Graeme Swann

Sandra Ramsey

Sandra is very dear friend of ours, having supported us for nearly 20 years. Having fundraised for us in so many different ways during this time, she most recently organised a ball to raise money for our Cardiac Unit. She was inspired to fundraise for us following the care her daughter, Charlie, received. We are delighted that Charlie continues to go from strength to strength and want to extend our deepest thanks to Sandra for her loyal and invaluable support. You truly deserve to be named as one of our 100 Heroes.

Clive and Sylvia Richards

We would like to thank Clive and Sylvia for their incredibly generous support of our hospital and appeals over the years. Your contributions have enabled us to make significant changes at our hospital that have made a real difference to our staff, patients and their families. We are eternally grateful and can never thank you both enough.

Roman Originals

Over the past four years, Roman Originals have raised an incredible £38,000 through their carrier bag donations scheme, also helping to raise awareness of our hospital and charity at the same time. We are so grateful for your continued support and commitment to helping us do more for our sick kids.

National Round Table

Richard Holland and his team at Round Table wanted to set themselves a challenge like no other for Richard's year as the Round Table's President. With 2019 being the 92nd year of the Round Table, and coincidentally there being 92 professional football teams in England, they challenged themselves to visit each of these clubs in a 92-hour timeframe.

Richard, along with Alan, Jim and the help of Round Table members from across the country, managed to visit each of the clubs and raise a staggering amount of money which helped us close our £2million Critical Journey's Appeal. Thank you to Richard, Alan, Jim and every person who helped along the way – you're all true heroes!

Sandwell Riding Club

Over the past nine years, the fundraising efforts of Pat and Tina Sharman, along with everyone at Sandwell Riding Club, have helped raise over £50,000 in loving memory of Alex Rainbow and Ros Southall. We can't thank you all enough for your truly fantastic support.

Mark Saxon

For the past seven years, Mark has organised a charity golf day to say thank you to our hospital's Oncology Department for the treatment and care his grandson has received since he was born. Every year, Mark and his friend Roy raise a truly remarkable amount of money as well as awareness of us and our hospital nearly 70 miles away in Powys. We are so grateful to you Mark, along with Roy, for everything you have done for us. Your continued support is appreciated by so many.

School of Theatre Excellence

Chris, Marcus and all of the students and teachers at the School of Theatre Excellence have become great friends of ours over recent years. The students have performed beautifully at a number of our events, including our annual Christmas Concert and special Roald Dahl launch event and Royal Visit. Their willingness to support us in any way they can is so appreciated. Thank you for always adding a touch of magic to our events.

Alex Scott

After his daughter, Ella, underwent 11-hours of surgery to remove a mass from her stomach at our hospital, Alex was inspired to help raise money for us to say thank you. He decided to challenge himself by signing up to a half marathon, having not done one before, and set an initial fundraising target of £2,000. Not only did he complete the half marathon, but he also managed to more than triple his target, raising over a whopping £7,410. Alex, you're an absolute star and have achieved some amazing things, we can't thank you enough.

SDL Property Management

When the team at SDL Property
Management selected us as their charity of the year for 2019, we knew this would be a very special partnership, and they did not disappoint. The team have taken part in lots of different fundraising activities, from the Birmingham Half Marathon to making a charity donation in lieu of sending Christmas cards, and also braving our Apprentice Challenge, in which they raised over a huge £6,110 in just one day. You're all truly exceptional and we are delighted to recognise you as one of our 100 Heroes. Thank you all.

Adam Sharkey

Adam and his group of 'unemployables' decided to take on the Spring Wolf Run to help raise money for us. The group, truly dedicated to their mission, installed a gym at their workplace to help keep them motivated and ready for the run! The team of 20 managed to raise over an incredible £19,710 for our Paediatric Intensive Care Unit – the most ever raised for us at a Wolf Run event. Thank you Adam and all of the 'unemployables', you absolutely smashed it and we're so grateful for your support.

Jenny Shortt

Jenny, along with help from 30 of her nearest and dearest, wanted to take on 30 challenges to celebrate her 30th birthday while raising money for us. Not only did she manage to accomplish all 30 challenges, but she also exceeded her fundraising target, raising an amazing amount to help us do more for our sick kids. Thank you so much for all you have done, you're amazing!

Siemens Mobility Limited

We were incredibly proud to be chosen by the team at Siemens Mobility as their charity of the year in 2019. The team threw themselves into their fundraising by holding tuck shops, cake sales, taking part in Jolly Jumper Day and hosting their own Tour de Siemens – just to name a few! Over the course of the year, the team managed to raise a fantastic £5,330. We are so grateful to you all.

Sigma Financial

The wonderful team at Sigma Financial have supported us for the past three years. Last year, they raised an enormous £11,000 for us by taking part in dress-down days, Payroll Giving and our Christmas ward decorations project, helping to sprinkle magic across our Ocean Ward and Ward 18. We are so thankful to you all for your incredible support over the past few years. Your enthusiasm makes you a truly wonderful team to work with.

Manny Singh

Manny, along with his family and friends, was inspired to fundraise for us to thank our hospital for treating his daughter, Amaya, after she was diagnosed with a brain tumour on Christmas Day two years ago. They have held various fundraising events and collections to raise over £10,000 for us. We are so thankful to you, Manny, for everything you, your family and friends have done to allow us to do more for the sick kids in our hospital's care. You're all marvellous.

Guirish Solanki

Guirish, one of our much-loved Consultant Neurosurgeons, successfully bid to host the world renowned, four-day ISPN conference (International Society for Paediatric Neurosurgery) in October 2019, beating off stiff competition from other large international cities such as Singapore and Miami. As well as organising this incredible conference, Mr Solanki also raised an amazing amount for our charity during the event. Thank you for everything you have done over the last two years to deliver this conference, and to raise the profile of our hospital in the process. Your support is invaluable.

Charlotte Southall

Charlotte completed the London Marathon last year after receiving one of our charity places. Each place comes with a £2,500 minimum target, but Charlotte managed to far surpass this, raising an amazing £5,610. Alongside sponsorship from friends and family, she found time between her training to organise her own fundraising events, too. A huge well done on completing the marathon, Charlotte, and a massive thank you for helping us do more for our sick kids. You're a star!

Sporting Bears Motor Club

The Sporting Bears Motor Club has supported us for many years, helping to contribute a significant amount to our Rare Diseases Centre. Their 'dream rides' are a popular attraction at many different car events up and down the country, where people bring their luxury classic cars and the public can give a donation to enjoy a ride in them. Last year, they brought their unique offering to the Silverstone Classic 2019 event, which went down incredibly well with the attendees, so much so they won a trophy for the best attraction of the day. Thank you all so much for your incredible, unique and wonderful support, we can never thank you enough for all you have done and continue to do for us.

St Michael's C of E High School

Led by the incredible Kerry Whitehouse, St Michael's 'Student Voice' has supported us since 2012. Student Voice is a fully engaged and adventurous group of students who go above and beyond to raise money for us while also supporting their local community. Outside of school hours, the group will meet up and host bucket collections and help shoppers by holding bag packs in local supermarkets. This year, their fundraising pushed boundaries by raising the most they had ever done from their sponsored activities and Winter Fayre. Thank you to each and every one of you. You are all our true heroes.

Sue Stephens and Ken Davies

Sue and Ken joined us for our Birmingham to Amsterdam cycle challenge last year. They set their sights on raising £3,300 but between them, they managed to nearly double this amount with a phenomenal £6,190. Sue has also taken part in our London to Paris cycling challenge where she raised another incredible sum of money. Sue and Ken, you brought so much life to the event. You are superstars, thank you so much.

Student Roost

After area manager, Adam Simmons's nephew, Noah, spent time in our Paediatric Assessment Unit when he was just six-months-old, his team of adventurous staff rallied together to raise money for us. They challenged themselves to climb three of the UK's highest mountains, raising over £10,000. The support you have all shown to Adam, his family and to us is truly admirable and for that, we are so grateful.

Sutton Schools of Tae Kwon-Do

Anna and Richard from Sutton Schools of Tae Kwon-Do wanted to show their support for our patients and families by choosing to raise money for us last year. Along with their students, the group hosted a number of events which went on to raise an incredible £17,000 for us. We are all so thankful for your kind support over the past year and are truly humbled by your determination to help us do more of our sick kids.

Talbots Law

Talbots Law have been invaluable supporters of ours since 2018. Over the past two years, the team have raised a phenomenal £101,690 through a number of different fundraisers including our Birmingham to Amsterdam cycle challenge. Talbots was also one of the proud sponsors of our Winter Ball last year, which helped to raise an incredible £110,795 and the team has decided to continue supporting our sister charity, Birmingham Women's Hospital Charity. We are so grateful to you all for your loyalty and commitment to helping us improve the lives of our patients and families. We can never thank you all enough.

Chelsie Taulor and Familu

Since 2012, Chelsie and her family have gone above and beyond for us by hosting a number of fantastic charity balls. Full of glamour and fun for all, Chelsie's balls have been a date in the diary many look forward to and her dedication to help us do more for our sick kids has never failed to impress us. Over the years, Chelsie's commitment has shone, seeing her raise over £42,000. We are so lucky to have your incredible support, Chelsie. A huge thank you to you and your family for everything you have done and continue to do for us.

Taylor Wimpey Midlands

A big thank you to the team from Taylor Wimpey Midlands for raising an amazing £12,150 for our Oncology Department. The team raised this incredible sum of money at one of their much-loved golf days. We feel truly privileged and proud to work with such a wonderful team, year after year. Thank you all so much for your continued support, it really means the world to us.

Dave Thomas and Alan Durose

Dave and Alan took on our Birmingham to Amsterdam cycle challenge in September, raising over a fantastic £4,510. Alan has also previously taken on our London to Paris cycle challenge, where he raised a brilliant £4,000. The duo were real team players throughout the event, with Alan helping those who were less experienced and Dave providing the humour each day. You are both truly amazing supporters of ours and we're delighted to be recognising you both as one of our 100 Heroes.

Katherine Thompson and Jemma Willis

Friends Katherine and Jemma joined forces to fundraise for us as a thank you for the care both of their sons received. at our hospital. They decided to take part in one of the toughest kayak races in the world, Devizes to Westminster, last April. Not only did they accomplish an epic personal achievement, but they also managed to raise an amazing £5,000. Thank vou both so much for your commitment and dedication to helping our young patients. You're both stars!

Tommie's Childcare

Tommie's Childcare has eight nurseries based in Coventry and across the wider West Midlands. Last year, they wanted to help us reach the £2million target for our Critical Journeys Appeal by raising £5,000, which they did in record time. The teams have also decided to support us again this year and have challenged themselves to raise even more money. We can't thank every single one of you enough, we are so grateful for your continued support.

Alistair Trippett

Twelve years ago, Alistair was an oncology patient at our hospital. Now 24, Alistair wanted to do something to say thank you to those who cared for him and decided to sign up to our Birmingham to Amsterdam cycle challenge along with his mum, Suzanne and sister, Joanna. Having not long gone through some tough treatment, the challenge was particularly hard for Alistair, but his determination got him, and a lot of the other cyclists through. Not only did he achieve an incredible personal accomplishment, he also raised over a phenomenal £11,150 in the process. Alistair, you're a real inspiration to us all. Thank you.

Suzanne Trippett

Having previously taken part in our London to Paris cycle challenge. Suzanne signed up to our Birmingham to Amsterdam ride last year, this time with her son, Alistair and daughter, Joanna. The challenge fell on the tenth anniversary of the end of Alistair's treatment at our hospital. Suzanne managed to raise an amazing £4,295 for this bike ride, making the total amount raised by the family for us over the years a staggering £33,000.We are so pleased to recognise you as one of our 100 Heroes, Suzanne, we are truly grateful for everything you and your family have done for us.

Vertik-Al

The team from Vertik-Al entered a team of 16 first-time runners into the Great Birmingham Run to raise money for us. They had originally wanted to raise £5,000, with the directors of Vertik-Al pledging to match. However, the team managed to raise over £6,850, rising to over an incredible £13,700 including the match funding. Thank you to everyone at Vertik-Al for your outstanding contribution and on-going support. A huge well done to everyone who also completed the half marathon – you're all superstars!

West Bromwich Building Societu

For the past 12 years, we have had the invaluable support from the team at West Bromwich Building Society. They have raised over a phenomenal £864,000 to help support our brave patients and families. This year, they have continued their support by helping to fund our incredible Play and Recreation Workers and Facilitators. We are truly overwhelmed by your generosity and loyalty and can never thank you enough for your incredible support.

 \sim 28

West Midlands Police

The West Midlands Police Sports and Social Club hosted a national netball tournament this year. Netball teams from up and down the country gathered in Birmingham to take part in their tournament and the team decided they wanted to raise money and awareness for us at the event. Over the duration of the tournament, they raised money by hosting raffles and also at their fantastic, Willy Wonka-themed gala dinner. Thank you all so much for your fantastic support, we are beyond grateful.

Mark Williams

Mark recruited 40 family members and friends to join together to take on an inflatable 5k and help raise funds for our Cardiac Unit and Paediatric Intensive Care Unit. They wanted to raise money for us after Mark's son, Freddie, received lifesaving heart surgery at our hospital when he was just three-months-old. Initially hoping to raise £2,000, the team more than tripled this to £6,730. Thank you Mark, and to every one of your family and friends who took part.

Withymoor Colts FC

The Withymoor Colts FC team wanted to raise money for our hospital's Phenylketonuria Research Fund. They did this by hosting a race night, a parents tournament and fundraised at their Olly Wilkes memorial tournament. A big thank you to everyone at Withymoor Colts FC, we are so grateful for your excellent support.

Douglas Wright

We are incredibly grateful to Doug for his very generous support of our Roald Dahl stained-glass windows project which has helped to transform the entrance and corridor of our Waterfall House building. Thanks for your enthusiasm, Doug, we are eternally grateful.

WSP

The team at WSP have been supporting our charity for the past five years and in that time have hosted a number of brilliant fundraising events to help raise money for us. In 2019, the team took part in our ward decorations project, helping to spread Christmas cheer across a number of our hospital's wards, as well as taking part in the NHS Big Tea, Jolly Jumper Day and their very own band competition, 'Construction Rocks!'. A huge thank you to everyone at WSP for your incredible loyalty and generous support. You rock!
